

What is Investor Centre?

Investor Centre is MUFG Corporate Markets' (our registrars), new and improved, convenient, secure way to administer your investments online.

What happened to Signal Shares?

MUFG have transitioned away from Signal Shares to a new platform. Investor Centre is now the new primary way for Shareholders to access their investments online.

Can I still use Signal Shares?

No. Shareholders who attempt to visit Signal Shares will be automatically re-directed to Investor Centre.

How do I access Investor Centre?

Investor Centre can be accessed via a mobile app available, for free, on all smart devices from their respective app stores.

It can also be accessed via web browser at: <https://uk.investorcentre.mpms.mufig.com/login/login>

Will my Signal Shares login details still work on Investor Centre?

No. You will need to re-register due to the enhanced security that Investor Centre uses. Investor Centre uses multifactor authentication, requiring users to enter more than just a password to ensure tightest security.

Who do I contact if I have any questions about Investor Centre?

If you need help, please visit the online help section and frequently asked questions which can be found by following this link. Alternatively you can contact MUFG contact us.
